Dear Rollie Hawk,

Thanks for your order! We appreciate your business.

Now here are some helpful tools to make this a great shopping experience:

Every order is thoroughly reviewed to ensure that the order is accurate, the payment method is valid, and the purchaser is an authorized user of this payment method. Once the order has passed the rigorous review by our processing department, it is sent to our warehouse for shipment. Most orders are processed within minutes however depending on when an order is placed and the accuracy of the information supplied when the order is placed, processing can take longer. Further, for security reasons, in some circumstances voice confirmation may be required before we can process your order.
